

SOME PROBLEMS OF MODERN PHILOSOPHY

Series edited by Marek Sikora, Lidia Godek and Tadeusz Buksiński

VOLUME VI

MAN AND MACHINE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS	7
FROM THE EDITOR	9
Józef Bremer, Freedom of Will: A Neuroscience Perspective	11
Urszula Żydek-Bednarczuk, Human Brain in Relation to the Machine	27
Tadeusz Miczka, Technical Man, "Extended Man", "Man of 3D". An Attempt of Defining the Concept	37
Piotr Łaszczyca, Man and His Machines. Operators and Prostheses	49
Grażyna Osika, Waiting for the Singularity – about the Models of Interpretation Techniques	65
Krzysztof Michalski, The Autonomization of Technology and the Undesirable Consequences of Eliminating Humans as a Source of Errors	79
Izabela Kaczmarzyk, Machines as an Element of Everyday Life in the "Wędrowiec" Magazine	97
Dobrosława Wężowicz-Ziółkowska, The Meme Machines and "Straw Dogs." A Posthumanist Approximation	111
Mariusz Wojewoda, Human Nature in the Age of Cyberbiotechnology – An Ethical Problem	125
Jacek Kempa, Spirituality in the Time of Interactions with Machines	139
Beata Wojewoda, Machines. The World Without Suffering	151